

Cathy Corby Iannuzzelli to Join Rails as Executive Vice President of Product Strategy

Denver, CO (May 1, 2018) — QRails, Inc. a financial technology company offering sophisticated processing services and other solutions to banks, credit unions, and the digital payments industry, today announced that Cathy Corby Iannuzzelli, President of Corby and Company, Inc., will be joining QRails as executive vice president in charge of products strategy. She will report directly to Naseer Nasim, Chief Executive Officer of QRails.

Cathy will have oversight of the strategic direction of QRails payments products and commercialization of QRails new products in the US and Europe. In her role, Cathy will be working collaboratively with QRails clients and strategic partners to deliver differentiated solutions building on QRails state of the art payments platform.

Cathy joins QRails with more than 30 years of leadership experience in the payments industry with responsibilities spanning strategy, product management, and business development. She was vice president of Global Client Success at i2c, a payment processor, and held senior positions at TSYs and the prepaid processors TransCard and FSV Payment Systems. Earlier in her career she was a senior consultant for Booz Allen Hamilton & Associates.

“Cathy is one of the leading lights within the payments industry, recognized for her forward thinking and close attention to evolving customer needs. We are excited to have her as part of our leadership team,” said Nasim. “The payments landscape is changing rapidly, and as we work to broaden our solutions, strengthen, and grow our presence in key markets, Cathy’s experience and leadership will be invaluable.”

“I am excited to join QRails in this newly created position,” said Cathy. “I very much look forward to working with the leadership teams, clients and partners to sharpen our strategic focus and leverage the agility and flexibility of QRails products and services to strengthen and grow our presence in key verticals.”

QRails currently services a range of clients in both North America and Europe. QRails is expanding its operations to include professional sports clubs, insurance claims providers and corporate incentive programs while continuing to serve financial institutions in the US and Europe. The objective is to more than double revenue over the next 12 months.
